

THE FRUIT MACHINE

In filmmaker Sarah Fodey's documentary, survivors of a decades-long homosexual witch-hunt recount their personal stories of dedication and betrayal at the hands of the Canadian government. Some softened by age and sadness, others loud and angry, the voices of the former public servants targeted in the purge are now united, and determined.

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

SAT. MARCH 16 @ 4:30PM
CFB MOOSE JAW – IPSC THEATRE
FREE & OPEN TO GENERAL PUBLIC

Michelle Douglas served in the Canadian Armed Forces but was fired in 1989 as part of the military's "LGBT Purge". In 1992, her legal challenge ended the military's discriminatory policies against LGBT members.

Wayne Davis joined the RCMP in 1967 and attained the rank of Staff-Sergeant. After a successful 18-year career, he was discovered to be gay and was forced out of the RCMP as part of the "LGBT purge".

